FALL OF A SCAFFOLD. - At the Walnutstreet House, on Saturday, a scaffold, which had been erected in the dining room for the waiters to stand on while scrubbing the ceiling, fell down, seriously injuring two men, one of whom had a hip dislocated. We have not learned the names of the unfortunate persons.

FIRE.-A fire broke out about twelve o'clock, Saturday night, in the old "factory" on the corner of Third-street and the Miami Canal. The building belonged to the Ewing estate. It was occupied as a flouring mill, machine; shop, tub and broom factory. The entire building and contents were consumed. The loss will probably reach $5,000, which is partly covered by insurance.

THREE young men who have heretofore borne an unblemished character, were arrested on Saturday, on suspicion—a very slight one at that, of stealing the sum of $1 from a man who was putting up gas fixtures in a building north of the canal. The Auditor was authorized to contract with D. M. Fisher for contracting white-washing of all the walls around the cells in the new jail at a cost not to exceed $75.

BAD CHARACTERS.- Lieutenant Harmon, of the Hammond-street Station house, ar rested Wm. Cook, Edward, McMannis and John Capito, on Saturday, on the charge of stealing a pen knife from the store of Lewis W. Stagman, No. 29 Pearl-street. It appeared from the testimony in the Police Court, this morning, that the parties went into the store for the purpose of reconncitering the premiis an expert thief and burglar, from Louis-ville. He and McMannis were sent to the County Jail for two months, and Capito, who is a simple-minded youngster, was discharged. Police Court, Twenty-three cases were disposed of by his Honor Judge Saffin this morning. Rather a slim docket for Mon-

A RAT-TAIL WAGER .- A few days since a couple of enterprising butchers in Deer-creek Valley made a wager that the one having secured the least number of rat tails by the 22d inst, should furnish a supper for a party of twelve. We are not advised, but we presume rat-tail soup will be the princi-pal dish. Shot guns, pistols, swords, knives, clubs, dogs, high water, traps, stones and exterminators, are all brought into requisi-tion. A continual rattle of musketry is kept up, and the shouts of rat hunters enlivens the classic shades of that usually quiet valley,

A huge sign is stuck up on the slaughterhouse, "Cash paid for rat tails." Ask a man for a chew of tobacco, and he will pull out his plug and half a dozen rat-tails in the same hand. A youngster stepped into a leading store, and inquired for thread—was shown it—"How much a spooi?" "Five cents!" Youngster planks down a rat-tail and disappears with the thread. "All right," says Jones, and throws the tail in his safe with a hundred others. A father and son happen to be arrayed on opposite sides—old man "boles" a rat in apile of boards—youngster waits at end while old man "goes for" the rat—rat darts out and youngster lays him out with his club, cuts off his tail, and laughing says, "You ain't so sharp as you think you are, old man!" Water raises around the slaughter house, and an enterprising boatman trees fifty or sixty big fellows, and got them all. Deercreek youngsters drive a brisk trade with contraband rat-tails at five cents a piece. It is thought several thousand rat-tails will be the result of the hunt. What quantitles of grain and provisions will be saved through the bunt, and what a glorious time will be realized at the supper. The exter-mination of the rat tribe is a good work— and we say go on in the good cause.

OUTRAGEOUS .- About two weeks ago an OUTRAGEOUS.—About two weeks ago an elderly widow lady, who owns considerable property in this city, was returning home about ten o'clock at night from a friend's heuse, on Sixth-street. Sie was proceeding up Central-avenue, and when at the corner of Ninth-street she was accosted by a policeman named Kelsh or Kelcher, who demanded to know where she was going. She realised by saving she was going home. Afreplied by saying she was going home. Af-ter other questions, asked in a very ungen-tlemanly manner, he poured upon her abus-ive language and the lowest order of billings-gate epithets, and finally dragged her off to the station-house. There she was sgain sub-jected to insult and rudely thrust into a cell. She proffered money for her appearance, if they would allow her to go home. This they refused, and it was not until a Lieutenant on the police force came in, who knew her, that she was liberated.

It was then half-past twelve o'clock, and instead of furnishing the much-injured lady with an escort, she was compelled, late as it was, to go home alone. She commenced proceedings against the officer who arrested her, also Officer Morton and Station house-keeper Evans. They were tried before 'Squire McLean on Saturday, and Kelch bound over in the sum of $300 for his appearance before the Court of Common Pleas. Morton and Evans were discharged.

ONE LEG ITEM.—A very "inebriated" individual was discovered Friday night stretched perate attempts to regain his footing, at the same time essaying to sing "The Cork Leg," as sung by one of the Alleghanians. But he signally failed in all his attempts, from the act he hadn't the cork leg, or any other leg in its place. Just as be was exclaiming to on the cold ground," he was extraining to some unsympathetic boys: "My lodging is on the cold ground," he was seized by a policeman and borne off to the Station. On heirg remonstrated with for his unseemly being remonstrated with for his unseemly condition, he shook his head and solemaly remarked: "Y'see, Mister (hic), I took a drink a' whisky (hic); 'buther (hic) drink; t'other drink (hic); more drinks; lots o' drinks. Forgot my (hic) number of legs. Took jest 'nuff drinks for (hic) two legs; too much for one (hic) leg—couldn't stand the pressure!"

ARRIVAL OF THE REMAINS OF JAS. FAUREL The police force of Cincinnati appointed the following committee this morning to proceed to the Ohio and Mississippi Railroad depot, and receive the remains of the late depot, and receive the remains of the late James Farreil, formerly a police officer of this city, who met with a shocking death in Iowa last week, the particulars of which we have already published: Bressnan, Roberts, McCaffrey, Lockman, Twohig, Hawley, Jennifer, Bowers, Meara, Arnold, McDonald, Tudor, Hoke and Britt.

The train bearing the body reached the depot at eleven o'clock and twenty minutes, and was immediately taken charge of by the committee, and escorted to his residence on Court street, between Central-avenue and Plum-streets. The funeral of deceased will take place to-morrow afternoon at two o'clock, and will be attended by the police in a body.

ARREST OF A BURGLAR.-The store of Mrs. re, in Hamilton, Ohio, was broken open on Wednesday night last, and robbed of jewelry, ribbons, furs, &c., to the amount of $400 or $500. On Saturday morning, a man named James H. Keys, who, from a card found in his possession, appears to be the proprietor of a Bowling Saloon at the corner of State and Main-streets, New Albany, Indians, was arrested by officers Davis and Thomas white attempting to dispose of some of the stolen articles at the store corner of Lodge-alley and Fifth-streets. He was brought before Judge Suffin this morning, who remanded him to the custody of the Marshal of Hamil-ton. Nearly all of the stolen property has been recovered at the various pawn-brokers' establishments in this city. Skeron Clus. - The regular meeting of the Cincinnati Sketch Club was held on Saturday evening last at the residence of Wm. Comstock, Esq., as the guests of J. C. Shipley. The contribution of sketches was quite large, evencing clearly that these meetings are not without effect in promoting art. Mesers Henry J. Smith, F. Werner, R. C. Rogers, T. Buchanan Read, W. Hopper, E. P. Cranch and others contributed to impress the association favorably with music, instrumental and vocal.

The next meeting of the Club takes place at Mr. Eston's rooms, No. 20 Pike's Opera-house, east entrance, guests of Mr. Pedretti. Subject for illustration—Coleridge's Ancient

St. VALESTINE'S DAY .- This annual occasion of epistolary love-making and hideous pictures, passed off without any great demonstration in the way of sending valentines. The hard times no doubt operated against the sales. The once remantic character of this anniversary has degenerated into silliness and vulgarity, and it is therefore "more honored in the breach than in the observance.

A few nights since in Chicago a digitating thief entered the Police Station and stole a policeman's overcoat, a silver star, a silver tobacco box, and a memoran-dum book. That thief certainly performed a feat of which he may boast for a lifetime. If he had stolen the policeman at the same time, he would have been entitled to pardon for taking the other articles.

A Significant Incident. In his last lecture before the Ladies' Aid Society, in this city, Dr. Fletcher related an incident of his imprisonment at Richmond, which is not only interesting in itself, but wonderfully significant of the subdued, but strongly vital, Union feeling in the capital of the Rebei Confederacy. At the time of its occurrence, he was released on his parole, to take charge of the prison hospital, and was taken by the rebel general in command to board at his head-quarters. Here he heard a part, and at the prison saw another part, of the incident which we allude to. Two prisoners made their way past the guards one day, by some stratagem, and were not de-tected till they had got a considerable distance away. But as soon as they were dis-covered they were pursued, and being cramped by long confinement, were rapidly overtaken. Seeing that they would be caught, they dashed into the nearest house, a large and respectable-looking residence, probably intending to run out into the street in the rear, and thus gain a little advantage over their pursuers. The guard vantage over their pursuers. The guard ran up to the door, and were met by the lady of the house, of whom they demanded the two fugitives. She said they were not in the house. They asked leave to come in and search. She refused it. They persisted, and so did she. They went off to head quarters for authority to break into the house and agreet the lady went on to head-quarters for authority to bresk into the house and arrest the lady. General Winder, the commandant of the post, hesitated, and finally concluded "it would not be best in the condition of feeling then existing in the city to venture on so ir-ritating a step." This decision implies a very considerable respect for a very danger-cons feeling in the city and it confirms to the ous feeling in the city, and it confirms to the full all that has been reported of the Union sentiment existing there. At least, so it was construed by the officer of the baffled guard.
At dinner that day he was talking of the at dinner that day he was taking of the affair in an excited manner, and said he "believed that if a Union army should enter Richmond then 10,000 Union flags would be displayed in an hour." "Yes," said a prother efficer at the table, "and it is just so in every commercial city of the South." This incident is significant, and it is true.—Indiconvolite Journal. anapolis Journal.

Flax Cotton and Flax Wool. in regard to the success of flux cotton, or rather, as to whether it has really been accomplished, and many are ready to cry out "humbug" without taking pains to inquire into its merits and the facts in regard to it. We have undoubted assurance that Messrs. Hall & Farrar, of Jamaica Plains, New York, have a manufactory in full blast for the purpose of converting the fibre of flax into cotton and wool, by a new process reabout a tun per day, for which there is a steady and increasing demand; and when mixed with wool, is said to make a superior article over that of cotton mixture. The fiber wears better and the color is more permanent. They also manufacture of this material, prints, cloths, flannels, stockings, satinets, cassimeres, blankets, &c.

In many parts of the country, farmers cultivate flax for the seed only, which pays fully as well, and in many instances better than corn—less trouble and a more certain market. A meeting was recently held at Lockport, N. Y., for the purpose of organ-zing a company for the manufacture of flax cotton, and to convert it into cloths. Ex-Governor Hunt and Hon. S. B. Ruggles were present and took part in this meeting. It will thus be seen that flax cotton, sud the manufacture of cloth from the material, is a fixed fact, and that King Cotton is in a fair prospect of being flaxed out.

The Methodist makes the following timely emark on the late report of the House Committee in relation to the great number of disloyal persons in the employment of the Government: We do not assume that the charges brought by the House Committee can all be sustained; but there is enough in the report, resting upon apparently reliable testimony, to make an earnest patriotic heart sick. Should the public service continue to be inested with disaffected persons; should the work of the Government continue to be hirdered, its plans betrayed, and its dignity insulted by men who enjoy its confidence and are paid out of its Treasury, there will be an outbursting of popular wrath which will leave ineffaceable marks on those against whom it is turned. From henceforth the responsibility for this wrong will be transferred to the heads of Departments, the Commander in Chief, and the President. The people will know, and must know, why traitors or disaffected persons are continued for a single day in positions of trust, profit

GREAT IMPROVEMENT -IN-Sewing Machines!

THE EMPIRE SHUTTLE MACHINE.

PATENTED FEBRUARY 14, 1860. Sales-room, 100 West Fifth-st., CINCINNATI, OHIO.

THIS MACHINE IS CONSTRUCTED Me on an entirely new principle of mechanism, pos-sence nany rare and valuable improvements, hav-ing been examined by the most profound experts, and proncentoed to be SiMPLIUITY and PREFEC-TION COMBINED.

The following are the principal objections urged against sowing machines:

1.—Excessive fatigue to the operator.
2.—Liability to get out of order
3.—Expense, trouble and less of time in repairing,
4.—Incapacity to saw every description of mate-

5. - Disagreeable noise while in operation. The Empire Sewing Machine is Exempt from All these Objections.

It has a straight needle, perpendicular action, makes the LOCE or SHOTTLE STITOH, which will neither RIP nor RAVEL, and is alike on both sides; performs perfect sewing on every description of material, from lea hor to the finest bassock muslin, with cotton, linen or silk thread, from the coarsent to the finest number.

Having neither LAM nor COG WHEEL, and the least persible friction, it runs as smooth as glass, and is emphatically

A Noiseless Machine. It requires FIFTY PER CENT. LESS POWER to drive it then any other machine in the market. A girl twelve years of age can work it sleadily, without fatigue or injury to hearth.

Its strength and wenderful simplicity of construction renders it almost impossible to get out of order, and is guaras teed to give entire satisfaction.

We respectfully invite all those who may deare to supply themselves with a superior arole to call and examine this UNEIVA JED MACHINE.
